Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 3-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Neumann (U.S. Publication 2002/0082695).

Neumann discloses a device for implanting a prosthesis, comprising a prosthesis (see Figure 12 below), an insertion instrument including a pair of gripping members 28 (see Figure 11 below) configured to grip the prosthesis on opposite sides (see Figure 12 below) and a holder 29 configured to receive the prosthesis (see Figures 11 and 12 below). The gripping member and prosthesis have complementary projections (see Figure 11 below) and recesses 17 (see Figure 2 below), and the holder comprises an opening (see Figure 11 below) adjacent an anterior face to the prosthesis with guide elements. In addition, the device comprises a releasable member, i.e. parts 19 and 12.
